ALVIN K. HELLERSTEIN, U.S.D.J.:

WHEREAS, Messrs. Cannata and Grochow have submitted an application to terminate the TCDI database and systems related to the MC 102 cases, and the Court remains concerned about cases that remain pending;

THEREFORE, the parties, by counsel, shall represent the status of all remaining cases at a conference to be held December 8, 2015, 2:30 P.M., Courtroom 14D. The proposed schedule for the conference is as follows:

1. Identifying the cases that remain;
2. The status of settlement discussions for remaining cases;
3. The relevance and need for the TCDI database;
4. Whether the cost sharing arrangement for the database shall be modified;
5. Plaintiffs' (Cannata and Grochow's) motion for sanctions related to settlement payments.

The parties are welcome to propose any additional agenda items.

SO ORDERED.
